Understands Conditions.

All poets are not in jail, although it seems to be the general belief that they ought to be. There is one in the penitentiary, however, at Stilwater, Minn., who conducts a department in the Prison Mirror, a journal published in the pen by the convicts. This is the way he comments on the defalcation of a Rhode Island bank cashier, and draws a moral from the same: Life is real, life is earnest,

And the man is lost who shirks: But the fellow starts the doings In the bank who takes the works.

Tell me not in mournful numbers How to live as I should; Life consists in doing people-When you do them do them good

Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul, If it was it matters little, If we o ly make a roll.

Be not like damb, driven cattle-If you are you will be chaffed, Get into the gay procession-Cultivate some easy graft.

Every minute yields a sucker-'Tis a statement that is plain; And if bait is often freshened, All the old ones bite again. -Joplin Daily Globe.

A Gold Nugget Starts a Boom.

A Breckenridge, Colo., dispatch says: The gold nuggets found during the past month by the American Gold Dredging company at its plant on the Swan has caused considerable excitement and a renewal of interest in the placer work now going on in this district. The 1288 nugget found three weeks ago was thought to be pretty good, but when Manager Dyer found the 5 48 nugget last Wednesday the climax was reached. The nugget is a particularly fine and pure one. Other smaller nuggets have been quite numerous in the sluice boxes, running in values from 58 up to 4008. Much coarse gold has also been found.

Work at the great Gold Pan pit has been retarded some during the past three weeks owing to the scarcity of water. But the management still keeps things moving at a lively rate, for an immense amount of work has been planned in order to make preparations for a big run next sea-on, when they will have five immeuse flumes and elevators at work. The unusually dry season this summer has retarded the #### Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a bard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world. There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by H. H. Watkins, Druggist.
